

Swiss Peace Council (Zurich) and Women's Foundation eFKa (Krakau) organise a biographic-historical workshop

JUMP OVER THE WALL

12. MAY 2019 FROM 10 A.M. TILL 2 P.M.
GARTENHOFSTRASSE 7, 8004 ZURICH

The workshop will be led by Dr. Stawomira Walczewska, a Polish philosopher and feminist. Her book "Ladies, Knights and Feminists. On Women's Rights Discourse in Poland" was published in 2015 in Darmstadt. She lives in Krakau, Poland and works for Women's Foundation eFKa.

The 2019 year gives a special opportunity to consider the short period of the political participation of women. In some countries of Central Europe (Germany, Poland, Austria and Lithuania) women went first time to vote one hundred years ago. During the next fifty years, women in the next countries gained their citizens' rights.

During the historic-biographical workshop its participants will broaden their knowledge about the history of the women's emancipation in Europe. They will also reflect on the interconnections between the women's history and their own biography with other participants.
